Thought for the Week: God's encouragement by Ian Bradley

If we have God's reassurance, and encouragement, we should not miss the world's praise. If our heart, mind, soul and strength are concentrated on God, we shall delight in letting him send us where he will, deal with us as he wishes, and bring us to where he has prepared.

Concentrating on God's point of view will alter and re-shape our own, until one day we shall look back and marvel that God, without the world's intervention, has changed us into the people we have become.
