Collect

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life: grant that we, having this hope, may purify ourselves even as he is pure; that when he shall appear in power and great glory we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom where he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Thought for the Week: We are Sealed by Ian Bradley

As Christians, we need to carry the seal of sincerity, truth and impartiality. We can wear it with pride, not pride in ourselves, but in the Lord who has called us to the truth.

We have the responsibility such a seal brings, whether we affix the 'fish' symbol to our car window, or the crucifix to our dashboard, or wear it round our neck, or on our lapel: we are saying to the world: 'I am Christ's.'

And the world will test us, as clay pots are tested after firing. If there is a crack in our make-up, the world will find it.
