Sunday 30th October @ 10am

Readings

Daniel 7 1-3, 15-18
Ephesians 1 11-end
Luke 6 20-31

Collect for All Saints Sunday

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thought for the Week Our Debt To The Saints

We owe much to the saints who have faced strong trials and temptations, and have won through for Christ.

Some of them were recognized as saints in their lifetime: most lived and died with never a thought of sainthood. Some spent years in luxury and sin, while others seemed destined for glory from childhood.

Today we should marvel at a God who deals so uniquely with each person he creates.