Thought for the Week: Always Forgive by Ian Bradley

This morning's Gospel (Matthew 18 21-35) is linked to the portion of the Lord's Prayer which is often glossed over: the petition that God will forgive us, in the measure that we forgive others.

Of course the depth of our love doesn't go anywhere near as deep as God's love; but we ask to be forgiven because we forgive others.

Also the quality of our forgiveness is always going to fall below the quality of God's, but if we are genuinely doing our best to forgive, then God will honour our intention and our efforts.
