Thought for the Week: Love Alone by Ian Bradley

Why should Jesus take so much trouble over us? For love alone, the love that gave Jesus the will to die, for us.

Man's inhumanity was such that the priests and scribes, the Jewish crowds and the Roman soldiers alike, could walk to Calvary, could stand at the cross, could see Love incarnate hang in agony and die, without experiencing that Love for themselves, because they all thought that Jesus was dying for someone else.

God knows that we shall not make this mistake; and that this revelation can convert Holy Week into a personal spiritual realization and experience for each one of us.
